Lamoille County Planning Commission Receives
2017 Excellence in Regional Transportation Award from the National Association of Development Organizations

WASHINGTON, DC – The Lamoille County Planning Commission in Morrisville has been awarded a 2017 Excellence in Regional Transportation Award from the National Association of Development Organizations (NADO) for the Construction of Municipal Trailheads and Wayfinding Signs for the Lamoille Valley Rail Trail in Vermont.

NADO is a Washington, DC-based association that promotes programs and policies to strengthen local governments, communities, and economies through regional cooperation, program delivery, and comprehensive strategies. The Excellence in Regional Transportation Awards showcase organizations for noteworthy projects and practices in rural and small metropolitan transportation planning, program delivery, and special initiatives. Award winners will receive national recognition at the 2017 National Regional Transportation Conference, to occur June 28 – 30 in Denver, Colorado.

According to NADO President Lynne Keller Forbes, Executive Director of the Southeastern Council of Governments in Sioux Falls, South Dakota: “The Excellence in Regional Transportation Awards highlight the important results of programs and projects like “Construction of Municipal Trailheads and Wayfinding Signs for the Lamoille Valley Rail Trail in Vermont”. Such initiatives are central to fostering quality of place, facilitating economic vitality, and improving mobility in our nation’s communities by promoting effective transportation planning and networks.”

For more information about the award-winning project, contact the Lamoille County Planning Commission at 802-888-4548.

###

Founded in 1967, the National Association of Development Organizations (NADO) provides advocacy, education, networking, and research for the national network of 540 regional development organizations. NADO members provide professional, programmatic, and technical assistance to over 2,300 counties and 15,000 municipalities.